MAGISTRATE'S ORDER

NOTICE OF ORAL ARGUMENT

Jnl 6
Pg 309

This Order shall serve as notice that oral argument shall be heard in this matter as follows:

SEVENTH DISTRICT COURT OF APPEALS COURTHOUSE
131 WEST FEDERAL STREET
YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO 44503

November 5, 2025, 11:30 AM

The panel of judges to decide this appeal includes:

Judge Cheryl L. Waite
Judge Carol Ann Robb
Judge Katelyn Dickey

3114 Pg 310

All parties who have filed a brief in this matter are permitted to argue. The hearing is thirty (30) minutes to be shared by all parties arguing (or 15 minutes if only one side of the appeal is arguing). All parties entitled to argue are to be present no later than thirty (30) minutes before the assigned hearing time.

A request for waiver of the hearing may only be made by written agreement of all parties entitled to argue. An individual party may only request waiver of their own appearance at oral argument. Parties have until seven (7) days from the date of this Order to file a written request to waive their appearance at oral argument, or to file a joint request to waive the hearing itself. Parties must immediately notify this Court by phone or fax of the intent to waive. Failure to appear without proper waiver may result in sanctions. The Court reserves the right to schedule oral argument even if it has been waived. If the victim has requested or if the victim is entitled by law to notice of proceedings, the prosecutor is responsible for providing that notice.

Absent extraordinary circumstances presented by written motion filed with the Clerk of Court, there will be no continuance of the oral argument as scheduled.
